Julie Greenberg is a partner at the firm. She has more than 25 years of experience in trademark and copyright prosecution and protection. Much of her career has involved federal court litigation with particular emphasis on obtaining preliminary injunctive relief. She has had extensive experience counseling clients in infringement matters involving trademarks and copyrights. Julie handles all levels of domestic and international trademark protection and prosecution, including at the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and has broad experience in opposition and cancellation practice throughout the world.

Julie's practice is focused on all areas of trademark and copyright matters, including selection, registration, enforcement and infringement defense, with extensive experience in resolving issues through consent agreements and licenses. She is Peer Review Rated AV® Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell, has been named a 2010 Top Lawyer in Metro Detroit, and has been recognized by Super Lawyers®.

Julie earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, and her B.S. in Chemistry, with distinction, from the University of Michigan. She is a member of the International Trademark Association (INTA), Intellectual Property Law Section of the Michigan Bar Association, Federal Bar Association, Michigan Intellectual Property Law Association (MIPLA), and American Bar Association (ABA).
