Overview

Linda has been an attorney at Fishman Stewart (formerly Rader, Fishman & Grauer) since its inception in 1996. Prior to joining the firm, she worked on the Romney for U.S. Senate Campaign and as a legal assistant with a Georgia law firm. It was the experience of interacting with clients as a legal assistant that led her to pursue a law degree. Linda also worked for the U.S. Department of Defense in Germany.

While at Wayne State University Law School Linda was an editor of The Wayne Law Review and a recipient of the Raymond Krell Scholarship and Lee Khachaturian Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions and accomplishments in the field of law. She also completed an Alternative Dispute Resolution course in Malibu, California through Pepperdine University School of Law.

Outside of the office Linda enjoys spending time with her family, running, cooking and traveling.
